

When the Scribes is installed, it comes configured so that the reports only can be executed (to visualize). To be able to include a new or To edit one already existing, and necessary one to include the user login in the operational system in the table of users of the Scribes

To register in cadastre new users It has access the Config menu → Admin Password

The password enters with the password standard is 1234

The window of I register in cadastre of users will be presented and so to insert the name of the user login in the system, to save to close this window and to leave and to enter again in the Scribes, ai it will come with all the tools qualified for this user

